Field Visit

57 students from 2nd semester, 4th semester and 6th semester students visited Guwahati's Digheswari, Archakanta Auniati Satra, Kanai Boroshi buwa Xilalipi located at Kamrup district of Assam. Digheswari temple is situated in the Northern Bank of the river of the Brahmaputra. The significance of the temple is that many ancient images made on rock existed where the Brick temple was built by the Ahom King Siva Singha. The temple is considered as the shakti peeth in Assam. Also, students visited Kanai Barasi Rock inscriptions which is located at North Guwahati, Assam is the first Assamese inscription recorded in the 13th century. Also, the students visited DouL Govinda temple which is situated on the Northern banks on the foothills of Chandra Bhrathi hill at Rajaduar North Guwahati. Students interacted with the priest and devotees of the temples about the history and significance of the temples.
